

Vision statement

A community of learners where wellbeing and relationships encourage ākonga to be confident, engaged and caring critical thinkers.

ME MAHI TAHI TĀTOU
MŌ TE ORANGA O TE
KATOA

WE SHOULD WORK TOGETHER FOR THE WELLBEING OF EVERYONE

Te Kura O Cobden Strategic Plan 2024 - 2025

Cobden School embodies our Te Tiriti based relationship with manu whenua through strategic goals, initiatives and policies.

Ngā whāinga Our Goals	Ngā mahi Initiatives	Kua Tutuki Success statements
To build a strong partnership with iwi and strengthen our cultural capabilities. NELP 1& 4	School wide PLD focused on culturally sustaining practice with support from Te Runanga o Ngāti Waewae Review localised Curriculum Develop and implement schoolwide te reo progressions	Through partnership with local iwi, our localised curriculum reflects our aspirations and local pūrākau Culturally sustaining practices within the teaching learning and school community
To strengthen links between home and school to increase engagement. NELP 1, 2, 3 & 4	Creating meaningful opportunities for whānau to support students within the school setting Develop a greater online presence and ways of working that promotes and celebrates Cobden Engagement with whānau	Whānau feel empowered and valued for their contribution Home and school, working together, for the success of ākonga Whānau feel engaged and able to contribute
To provide a safe physical and emotional learning environment. NELP 1,2 & 3	Implementation of trauma informed practices and collaborative proactive solutions school wide Upgrade of learning spaces to meet the needs of our ākonga	Ākonga are present, participating and making progress Ākonga will have spaces to explore, learn that allow them to make connections with nature and enhance their sense of belonging within our community and the places they connect to

Values

Manaakitanga – we care

Mahi ngātahi – we cooperate

Kōrero mai – we communicate

We believe to achieve the school vision we need to know, who we are, where we come from and where we belong now and the future. Tihei mauri ora